

TITLE: Authentic Learning Experiences: Parkinson's Disease
Your Contact Info: dhood@latech.edu

PURPOSE (Aims/Objectives)

Researching the human experience.

Qualitative analysis of undergraduate and graduate nursing student journaling.

Qualitative analysis of interviews with RSB care partners.

CUSTOMERS (Stakeholders)

- Nursing faculty/students from Louisiana Tech, Towson, Virginia Commonwealth + RN from Parkinson Foundation
- Connected through PF Visiting Nursing Faculty Scholars (VNF) program
- Beneficiaries – Tech nursing students + international dissemination for nursing education.

DESIRED END RESULT
(Critical Success Factors)

- Connection with collaborators recognized for their work with Parkinson's disease.
- Opportunity to impact nursing education-disseminate internationally.
- Confirmation of grant efforts to address PD through interdisciplinary approach on Tech campus.

CURRENT STATUS

Project completed.

Work of PF VFN Scholars continues.

Work of Louisiana Tech's Parkinson Resource Center continues to grow.
Music & Movement, RSB, LSVT-LOUD, Choir